Dear sir,

I am writing to you today to apply for the open job vacancy. I am interested in python,django developer role at your prestigious company. I believe my grasp of knowledge is ample enough to qualify me as a potential asset of your company.

I have currently a CSIT undergrad 6th semester running. But I am competent enough to handle task as any CSIT graduate available on the market. I ensure that I am extremely motivated and enthusiastic person and I have shown this on several occasions.

Additionally, I enjoy working with like-minded people and I am ready to take on a python,django developer job at your company. I feel that I possess the attributes that are required to be a professional django,developer.

Thank you for your time and for considering me for the position. I have included my resume and will follow up with an email next week to see if I can offer any more information.

Sincerely,

Narendra,pyakurel
